HOOSIER KITCHEN CABINET

A Pantry, Cupboard and Work-Table Combined

Which do you prefer, the Hoosier System or the old-fashioned way? The Hoosier System groups everything needed in preparing a meal at your fingers' ends. Every utensil and every article has its own special place. In the old-fashioned way everything is scattered all over the kitchen. You know it only too well.

The Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet—a pantry, cupboard and work-table combined—is a practical cabinet. The flour is put in at the top and every bit comes out through the sifter at the bottom of the bin. The sugar is in the dustproof bin at the right and works on the same principle. The spices are in cans at the left and the package goods in the cupboard above. All the utensils are before you or in the cupboard below. Everything is in its handy place, leaving the big aluminoid work-table free to use. This table top, like high-grade cooking utensils, can be washed bright and clean in an instant, ready for bread or cake-making.

We are sole dealers for Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets and we have a complete line on display. We can suit all purses—all-sized kitchens. Come into our store and let us show you how to make kitchen work easy, how to always have a neat, orderly kitchen. We sell Hoosier Cabinets at very low prices. Many people buy Hoosier Cabinets after seeing the other kinds. Few buy other cabinets after seeing the Hoosier.

Mrs. W. R. Andrus, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. H. Maxwell, left the misfortune to sprain her ankle yesterday, the accident happening in rather a peculiar manner. Mrs. Andrus started to go from one room to another which was darker and fell over the family dog, which was lying beside the door, and in the mixup the injury was received.

The Woodmen's fair, which has been drawing large numbers of people for the past week, closed last evening with about 500 people present. A programme was given from eight until nine o'clock as follows: piano solo, Miss Bertha Buss; vocal solo, James Galt; and a drill by a team of Woodmen from the Montpelier camp which was very well executed. The fair has been an entire success from start to finish, both socially and financially.

Rev. John Snyder, author of the play, "A Ye Sova," which appears here at the opera house, Wednesday, April 17, tells a good story about old Cyrus Smith who has driven the stage coach from the railway station to the village down at Barre for so many years and who made his first visit to Barre in forty years to witness a performance of "A Ye Sova" at the Majestic during its tremendous run there. It seems that the old fellow is never particularly well pleased when the summer visitors begin to arrive and he is a plain-spoken straight-from-the-shoulder sort of a man in his opinion of strangers, hardly any traveler ever visits the place without getting recorded in Cyrus Smith's own private "Who's Who" in Barre. With a few side explanatory remarks, it is said that a summer visitor arrived one day with an extra heavy trunk, and the lady who owned it happened to observe the old fellow struggling with it on his back towards his coach which he had engaged for the journey from the station to her stopping place. Wishing to appear to have a kindly concern in Cyrus' efforts to get the trunk on the coach the lady remarked "that is quite a heavy load for you, Mr. Smith," he replied between grunts, "I don't mind having these pesky heavy things for our village folks, when they come and go, but I do hate to carry them for you darned transoms."

The Daylight Store

Destroy a Man's Language and You Efface His Nationality.

So it is with the trade of every mercantile establishment. You destroy the people's faith in your business methods by dishonest dealings and you have lost your honest personality and the cream of your trade, which is your principal support. We endeavor in every way possible to make our personality that of honest dealings. We can only do this by honest efforts in every instance. We endeavor to buy only reliable goods, and if they prove otherwise we are more than pleased to make their defects good.

COTTON WASH GOODS.

It is our constant aim to give to the trade Wash Goods that are the season's favorite production. The following are a few of the cloths which are sure to interest those looking for Summer cloths.

A white cloth which is very good for ladies' waists or children's dresses is a Mercerized Embroidered Chiffon. Comes in a variety of embroidered stripes and checks. Priced from 25c to 50c per yard.

The Yoga Silks are especially popular and are used a great deal for fancy waists and evening dresses. They come in ground colors of tan and cream, with combination woven plaids of tan, blue and green. The price is 50c per yard.

A very popular black cloth is the seersucker, which requires no ironing. We have a fine one at 20c per yard.

WASH COTTON GOODS.

We have just received another lot of those Imported Mercerized Foulards. These are especially good for afternoon street dresses and shirt waist suits. The price is 25c per yard.

One lot of Printed Silk Tissues in the shades of brown, green, tan and blue. Price 25c per yard.

A lot of Black Silk Mulls with satin dots, in three or four different sized dots, at 25c per yard.

One lot of Dotted Swiss Muslins, in a variety of popular plaids, at 25c per yard.

One lot of Opalescent Silks in the popular plaids and figures, in a variety of good colors, at 25c and 50c per yard.

COTTON WASH GOODS.

We received Tuesday morning another lot of those Seersuckers in plain white and colored. We can give you the plain white now in three different widths of stripes at 12-1-2c per yard.

One piece of the plain natural colored linen for waists and suits. This if the linen the trade has been waiting for. The price is 25c per yard.

We are showing a large line of the popular FAIRFAX PERCALES. These are a cloth that has advanced two cents per yard in the last three weeks and if we had not bought them early in the season we could not have given you so choice a line to select from. We can give you them in medium blue, navy blue, red, brown, grey and black grounds, with white patterns, at 12-1-2c per yard.

Right Kind of Clothes

For the Right Kind of Boy!

Of course there is a right kind of a Boy, just as there is the right kind of a Suit to put him in. The right kind of a Boy doesn't want to bother too much about his Clothes after he has them on. He doesn't want his seams to rip when he slides down the banisters, plays leap-frog or jumps hitching posts. Our Widow Jones Spring and Summer Garments for the Boy's wear are ready and we particularly request mothers to come and see how well we can dress the Boy in a good-looking, stylish, durable Suit at a moderate cost. We've every cut of Suit that's right and our prices run, in sizes from 2-1-2 to 16 years, something like this: $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00 to $7.50. If this store has a specialty, it is clothing Boys rightly, handsomely and economically.
